Job Description – PRA Representative

History of PRA Representative Duties

NWSID began a collaborative event in 2009 as an alternative to the traditional vendor fair. Susan Grady and Sharon Titus were instrumental in its formation and Amy Bright, NWSID PRA Rep, became its architect creating a successful event that has now encompassed to collaborate with other organizations of PRO, ORA and NKBA. The weekend event includes a day of play/networking, a day of education and collaboration and a day of giving back to benefit ReFIT, a non-profit organization that remodels homes of disabled persons living under the poverty line. Since the creation of BUILD the event was held at Eagle Crest Resort in Central Oregon, Its sponsors include CFM, Ferguson, Morris Carpet Cleaning, Divine 9, Standard TV & Appliance, S'Tile and many, many others.

In 2014 Amy Bright stepped down from her role as PRA Rep and Amy Bradshaw was appointed to fill the position. As with all things Eagle Crest had run its course and it was time for a new venue and new ideas.

Salishan Spa & Golf Resort has been chosen as the venue for BUILD 2015 and is scheduled to be held August 27-30. It will include the main facets of the previous BUILD with Play, Learn, and Give as its main goals. Other details will be added... The BUILD committee has been formed for 2015 and monthly meeting are planned for development.

General PRA Rep Duties
